

Section 16700- TELECOMMUNICATIONS

Introduction

- The scope includes a complete telecommunication system that includes riser cables, station wiring, terminations, termination devices, grounding and minimum sizes of MDF and IDF rooms.

General

- All Telecommunications requirements for new and existing buildings shall be coordinated with UA Electrical Engineer and UITS prior to the start of design.
- See Appendix for approved Master Specification. Master Specification shall be incorporated into your specification sections.

Products

- See Master Specification and incorporate into your specification sections.

Execution

- See Master Specification and incorporate into your specification sections.

End of section 16700